

STRIKING A. C. L. CLERKS ESTABLISH HEADQUARTERS

Forty-Three Men Who Walk Out Operate Under Orders of Grand President.

CLAIM RIGHT TO ORGANIZE

Defend Their Action on Ground They Are Entitled to Privileges Enjoyed by Other Classes of Railway Employees.

The clerks of the Atlantic Coast Railroad, who walked out Tuesday morning are established in Room 138 in Murphy's Hotel Annex, and are now operating under orders of J. J.
Forrester, grand president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks.
These headquarters are in Cincinnati, and who is personally handling the affairs of the local striking chapter.

In view of the fact that varying statements have appeared in the local papers regarding the number of employees who walked out, and in an attempt to have the public know the real facts, a dozen or more of the members of the brotherhood affirmed the statements of A. W. Blinn, the president of the local organization, to the effect that almost 80 per cent of the clerks had walked out, and that they had done so in defense of their right to organize.

Mr. Blinn remarked that the clerks felt that they had a right to organize; that they did organize, and had been for about a month, being a chapter of the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks. He also stated that this was the second or third attempt of the clerks in the Atlantic Coast Line company to organize. But when General Superintendent W. H. Newell found out about the existence of the local organization, he put it up to the clerks whether they would resign from their chapter or remain in their capacity as clerks.

DISMISSAL OF BLANKSHIP

IS CAUSE OF STRIKE

Superintendent Newell requested W.
H. Blankship, one of the most efficient clerks in the office who has been with the company for five years, and was instrumental in the "objectionable" organization to get the men together and give him a reply as to what the boys were going to remain in whether they were going to remain in the organization. At Blankship's initiation a meeting of the brotherhood was called, at which it was decided to remain in the organization.
In ten minutes after the reply was handed in, Blankship was dismissed on the grounds that "his services were unsatisfactory."

"It was 'on account of' and in protest of this dismissal," say the strikers, that they walked out, it appearing to them that it was unjust.

On Tuesday morning thirty-five men walked out. Since then, eight others have followed suit, making a total of forty-three men who are out. Besides the agent, chief clerk and his stenographer, there are forty-one names on the clerks' pay roll. Thirty-two of these walked out, and nine stayed with the railroad. In addition to these thirty-two, all the six yard clerks in the Richmond office and the five in the South Richmond yard went out, totaling forty-three men.

ASK SAME PRIVILEGES

As other employees
The men insist that they "have not asked the railroad for one single privilege thing." The discharge of Blank-ship was a challenge to a dare to them to join the union, they say; yet that is a privilege the engineers and other branches of railroad employees exercise, and a privilege the clerks are striking for, they assert.

"Further, the men deny that the strike has not been left by the company. Not even a call-boy was left in the Richmond yard. And many of the men who walked out in defense of the right to join the union were middle-aged married men, old in service, and not green youngsters. Yet the men emphatically deny that the strike was an unpatriotic attempt to hinder the work of the government or the railroad. It is merely the clerical force's feeling that the railroad should grant it the same rights and privileges that are enjoyed by the other branches of the service.

WIND UP CAMPAIGN

Work in Virginia to Raise Funds for War Library Has Lagged Behind.

Plans are being perfected for a vigorous finish to the campaign to raise $25,000 in Virginia for war libraries.
The campaign has lagged for weeks.
Only a little more than $4,000 of the desired sum has been placed, and the campaign was due to close on October 11.

Much difficulty has been experienced by Dr. H. R. Mellwaine, head of the work in this state, in getting men and women to lead the campaign in the various counties. He is now, however, making a strong attempt to get all counties well in line, and hopes to bring the work to a successful close within three or four weeks.

In the meantime, books and magazines to be used as emergency literature at Camp Lee, pending the establishment of the war library, continue to pour in to Dr. Mellwaine's office.
These are being shipped to the camp as fast as possible.

RALLY FOR BOY SCOUTS

Interesting Program Will Be Carried Out at Grays' Armory Tomorrow Night.

The Richmond Council, Boy Scouts of America, plan to have a fine time in the form of a reunion and social dinner at the Grays' Armory at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Scouts and their friends have been invited.

A short talk will be given by Dr.
Douglas Freeman on "Scout Duty and the Liberty Bell." Medals for farm and war service will be awarded by John Stewart Bryan. There will be music by the Drum, Pipe and Bugle Corps, under the direction of A. S. Mc-Farlane. A program of interesting contests has been arranged.

Would Increase Speed Limit.
An effort will be made at the meeting of the Council Ordinance Committee tonight to take steps to amend the traffic ordinance so as to increase the rate from fifteen to twenty miles per hour. Members of the Richmond Automobile Club are much interested in the movement.

Wants Records for Soldiers.
Mrs. Lewis H. Machen, secretary of the Library War Fund committee, asks that those desiring to donate phonograph records for soldiers at Camp Lee will please bring them to suffice headquarters at the regular meeting this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and she will see that they are delivered at the camp.

Open Headquarters for Food Campaign

Organize Entire State to Further Work of Conservation.

Headquarters for the second food administration campaign were yesterday established on the third floor of the Davis Building, Twelfth and Franklin Streets, with J. H. Montgomery, secretary of the Co-operative Educational League, in charge. Work of organizing the entire State for food conservation was immediately gotten underway, and requests to ministers and divisional school superintendents to aid in the campaign were forwarded.

A circular forwarded to ministers suggests the preaching of special patriotic sermons, in which appeals for thorough co-operation with the United States food administration are to be made. Some ministers' conferences have passed resolutions asking ministers to observe Sunday, October 21, as the day for these sermons.

The circular points out that all of America's allies in Europe have their men on the fields of battle and not on the farms. "The production of food in these countries," it says, "is, therefore, reduced. They depend on us for food as they have never depended before, and they ask for it with a right that they have never had before. For today they are doing the fighting, the suffering and dying—in our war."

Secretary Montgomery yesterday sent every divisional school superintendent stating that Superintendents Public Instruction Stenographers desired every school in the State to observe one afternoon between now and November 1 as a food conservation rally, and suggested that teachers prepare programs and invite patrons to discuss food conservation and pledge card campaign.

ARRANGE DAY OF PRAYER

Interdenominational Missionary Workers Will Discuss Plans at Meeting Monday.

The executive committee of the Women's Interdenominational Missionary Union, composed of Mrs. E. E. Esmond, president; Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, Mrs.
W. B. Newell, Mrs. L. Neale, Mrs. Ben Crump, Mrs. J. J. Scherer and Miss Sallie Deane, vice-presidents; Mrs. John Garland, Pollard, secretary; Mrs. L.
Curry, corresponding secretary, and Mrs.
T. Crawford, recording secretary, with Mrs. Osgood presiding, held its first fall meeting this week in the Bible classroom of the Young Women's Christian Association.

The meeting was well attended, and a great interest was manifested in the plans for the coming winter. The keynote of the meeting seemed to be the impression that, in these stressful days of war and tumult, the high purpose of the church is in danger of being forgotten or set aside for the things matterial; that the temporal welfare of the individual tends to eclipse the more vital spiritual needs, and that just at this time it will be well for the mother and friends to be given opportunity for special prayer for the soldiers and the nation.

It was decided, therefore, to have a called meeting of the entire union on Monday at noon in the Seventh Street Christian Church for the purpose of discussing plans for a "Day of Prayer," in which the women of Richmond, by invitation, meet for united prayer and for the spiritual welfare of the soldiers and the nation. Every member of the union is urged to be present.

GROCERS CLOSE EARLY

Stores on Church Hill Adopt Plan to Shorten Hours on Each Saturday.

The grocers of Church Hill have come to the conclusion that it will be agreeable to the customers and satisfactory to the trade to have their stores close promptly at 5 P. M. on each Saturday.
The new regime will go into effect this Saturday. Customers are requested to get their orders in by 5:30 P.
M. on these days. On the part of the grocers it is urged that co-operation is essential, and will be appreciated by all.

Those who signed the agreement are as follows: E. Eubank, Bourne Bros., Mrs. R. E. Hubbard, E. C. Gilson, Newton D. Gentry, C. P. Steinman, T. H. Peace, M. O. Pettig, Mrs. J.
Warren, C. N. Parker, Hudson Market, A. F. Gaudin, W. C. Atkinson, W.
Russell, W. W. Crowe, H. Wagnan, Albert H. Pohlig, George P. White-hurst, A. R. Beck, Linus & Perel, B. P.
Shackford, Johnson & Johnson and H.
B. Taylor.

W. A. Clarke, Jr., secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, thinks this a good business move for Church Hill, and expresses himself warmly in favor of the idea spreading over the whole city.

ORGAN RECITAL

F. Flaxington Barker Will Render Program at St. Paul's Episcopal Church To-morrow.

Music lovers of Richmond will be given an opportunity to-morrow night to hear an organ recital at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. It will begin at 8:30 and will be the auspices of the American Guild of Organists, and will be conducted by F. Flaxington Barker, organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's, assisted by J. Foster Barnes, baritone.
There are seven numbers on the program. Mr. Barnes will render "Draw Near All Ye People" from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," and also Buck's "My Redeemer and My Lord." Camidge's Concerto in G minor, No. 2, will open program, followed by two organ preludes from Brahms, "A Rose Tree" and "The World I Live In." The two Hebrew melodies, "Memorial of the Departed" and "Passover Hymn" will also be rendered by Mr. Barker.

Held for Federal Court.
Pearl Henderson, colored, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Flegel yesterday, charged with violating the prohibition law.
She was apprehended with five quarts of whisky in a suit case. Bail was given in the sum of $500 for her appearance before the District Court.

Mayor Vetoes Ordinance.
Mayor Ansley has refused to subscribe to the recommendation of the Stonewall Committee to close a block in Stonewall Avenue and relocating the street, so as to bring it in line with the property of James F. Bradley. The recommendation of the Streets Committee and City Engineer was put in the form of an ordinance, which the Mayor refused to approve. He states that the committee was unintentionally misled in making the recommendation to the Council.

WAR LIBRARY BALL TO BE BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Gay Event Will Be Staged at Grays' Armory on Saturday Night.

GOVERNOR WILL BE PRESENT

General Cronkhite and Staff Also Expected to Attend—Nothing Lacking in Pleasure and Convenience for Guests.

When the War Library ball opens at the Grays' Armory on Saturday night there will be nothing lacking in the way of pleasure and convenience for the guests. There is even to be a supper room, located on the mezzanine floor of the armory, where a delicious supper will be served at small expense.
The cafe opens at 7:30 o'clock and already large supper parties have been arranged by officers and their families from Camp Lee.

Richmond also is getting up a number of parties, and it is anticipated that the supper room will be festive in appearance and well patronized.
The cafe is to be decorated with autumn flowers and foliage, but the most attractive feature will be the pretty waitresses who will be gowned in costumes of white, with kerchiefs and aprons, and wearing gay little caps of red, white and blue upon their powdered hair.

Richmond Minister and Confederate Veteran Will Work Being Done.

"Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund" yesterday received substantial in-dorse-ment, not only in the sum of $48.81 from various contributors, through The Times-Dispatch, but with one accord a prominent Richmond pastor, and a Confederate veteran came forward to praise the movement and lay down their subscriptions in lighted long days and racking nights in the trenches.

The veteran, writing of the fund, says: "I am an old ex-Confederate soldier, not able to buy a Liberty bond, but I can help to fill some soldier's pipe in France."

The preacher friend of the tobacco fund expresses this sentiment: "You are to be congratulated on the effort you are making for the comfort and peace of mind of the soldier boys in France. This letter is not for publication, and I do not care for my name to be placed after my contribution, but I must put you on the back for what you are doing, and I do so with all heart and soul, and I am sure of anything that will bring more contentment and enjoyment to a soldier than such a material reminder in the way of a smoke. Keep up the good work."
